

Dear U.S. Citizen Traveler,

Greetings from the U.S. Embassy in Buenos Aires! Speaking as a temporary resident of this beautiful country, I hope that you will enjoy every minute of your business or vacation stay. Whether you take in a tango show or learn a few steps yourself, trek on the face of Perito Moreno glacier, marvel at the spectacular Iguazu Falls or simply watch passersby from a cafe in Recoleta, Argentina offers experiences that you'll be relating to friends and family for years to come.

Before you head out, I encourage you to review the Argentina Country Specific Information Sheet on the State Department Website. This informational page provides guidance on health care, safety and security, transportation and more. The vast majority of American citizens visit Argentina and Buenos Aires without incident, but you should remain alert as you would in any major city. The Embassy's American Citizen Services Unit stands ready to assist you should you experience any problems during your stay. Our Foreign Commercial Service Office can provide guidance if you are interested in exploring local business opportunities. For your convenience, I have provided some important Embassy websites and phone numbers below.

I hope you have a fantastic time exploring the wonders of this dynamic country that I am privileged to call home.

With Warm Regards,

E. Anthony Wayne
U.S. Ambassador to Argentina
